AUSTRALIAN WOMENS SOCCER NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

VALENTINE SPORTS CLUB

Valentine Sports Park is a multi-purpose sports and conference centre incorporating a modern motel complex, especially designed to provide live-in accommodation for groups utilizing its many sport and recreational facilities.

Opened in 1986 as an initiative of the New South Wales Soccer Federation, Valentine Sports Park has become 'a home away from home' for numerous sporting groups who regularly hold coaching camps, specialist training clinics, conferences and meetings. The accommodation block, which is unmatched by other sports complex in this state offers the ultimate in modern facilities. Because every visitor is welcomed as a special guest, fed heartily and accommodated in air-conditioned, comfortable bedrooms with private bathrooms, a holiday resort atmosphere is always present. Whether a visit to this retreat is just for a day or as a guest in the motel for a week, everyone is a V.I.P. at Valentine Sports Park.

For further information or to arrange a time when a member of staff can show you around the complex, discuss rates, details for bookings, please contact:

... from the AWSA President ...

On behalf of the Australian Women's Soccer Association, I would like to welcome all players, officials and spectators to the 17th National Womens' Titles. In doing so, I would like to congratulate all those who have been selected in their State sides and to thank State Associations and officials who have done so much to ensure that their State is represented. A National Titles provides the opportunity for the best of our players to compete against their equals and this they must do if the game is to continue to develop. It is also the arena in which the elite players can demonstrate their worth in respect to national selection.

1990 heralds a new era in womens' soccer. We expect to have confirmation in the very near future concerning qualifying rounds for entry to the inaugural Womens' World Cup. At this time, it seems that the single place allocated to the Oceania-region will be decided between Australia, New Zealand and Papua New Guinea. The competition this week will provide National Coach, Steve Darby, with the final opportunity to fine tune his squad for the very important time ahead of us. Having travelled to Japan with the national squad in December 1989, I have a degree of confidence that we will be in China. On the other hand, I also expect that there are players here this week who will prove to Steve that they must be included in his World Cup squad.

While we can never be complacent about our position, I consider that womens' soccer is in a healthy state and am optimistic about the future. Such optimism must have foundation and I would like to pay tribute to those who have developed womens' soccer. Over recent years this foreword would have been written by long term President and premier supporter of womens' soccer, Elaine Watson. On your behalf I would like to once again register our strongest thanks for Elaine's input over many years.

Finally, I would like to extend the appreciation of the Australian Womens' Soccer Association to members of the New South Wales Soccer Federation, to the National Executive Director, Heather Reid, to State Associations, players and officials who have spent so much time, effort and money to ensure that this will be a successful carnival. I wish all players and teams a week of healthy competition in an atmosphere of friendly rivalry.

Dennis O'Brien
AWSA President

... from the NSW SF President ...

Welcome to Valentine Sports Park – the home of soccer in New South Wales. The New South Wales Soccer Federation is pleased to be hosting the 1990 Women's National Championship and to be associated with the Talent Identification Scheme.

I am sure all the players have come to this Tournament with two aims. Firstly, to represent and do their best for their own State and secondly, to stake a claim for inclusion in the National Team to participate in the Oceania qualifying Games for the 1991 World Cup to be held on the Peoples Republic of China.

The expectations are that the skill level will be high and all games highly competitive. It is hoped that all matches are played in a spirit of "Fair Play" with sportsmanship the ultimate winner.

For the participants there are enormous pressures – the need to do well for their state and to continue their personal development as players. Our coaches too have pressure on them as do the referees selected by their states to control these matches.

All-in-all it adds up to an engrossing week.

On behalf of the New South Wales Soccer Federation and all those involved in our code I extend to everyone our best wishes for the tournament.

Peter Thorne,
PRESIDENT

... from the Executive Director ...

I watched my first national championship game in Sydney in 1981 when I attended the 8th AWSA titles at Chatswood Oval. Since then, our sport has undertaken many changes including a revision of the championship format and the introduction of two under age competitions.

Hundreds of players have competed in AWSA championships but there are some who have the honour of returning to Sydney for the second time in nine years. These players include McPhee (NSW); Jones, Singleton and Monk (Victoria); O'Brien and Corcoran (ACT); the Millman sisters, Spencer, Priestley, Sawyers and Wass (Queensland); Iserief and Menzies (Northern NSW); and Latimer (South Australia). Let's hope that many more players can establish similar records of achievement.

Unfortunately, with the passing of time, the AWSA has lost many hard working supporters. In 1989, the soccer community farewelled 'the big man' of NSW women's soccer, Don Balmain when he quietly passed away after a long illness. Don Balmain was an active member of the AWSA and was President of the NSW Women's Soccer Federation during the 1981 championships.

I would like to say good luck to players and officials and wish you a successful and enjoyable tournament. On behalf of the Board and all participants I would like to thank the NSW Soccer Federation and Kym-Maree Field for her work in organising the 17th National Women's Soccer Championships.
